Show and Sale updates

1. Dawn Miller was appointed to coordinate the Judge's Breakfast with the Rose Society. She needs more people to bring in food for breakfast and lunch.
2. We have six judges and need a lot of scapes for them to judge. Bring in any you have that are open. Linda and Kay will contact central Florida clubs to see if any of their members would like to enter our show.
3. Lunch for the Judges- Dwain, Dennis and Greg
4. Dennis, Judge Chairman will see the Judges get breakfast and start the judging.
5. Everyone is invited to Kay's after clean up of the show and sale to see the sunset and go out to dinner.
6. The number of plants needed for the sale was discussed. The motion was made to increase the amount spent for plants from Dan Hansen to $1500.00 by Dennis Hoffman and seconded by Dawn Mason.
7. "Clean and Bag" will be at Dwain and Mark's at 9 am on Thursday April 29. The motion was made to shake, trim and bag was made by Mark and seconded by Jay.
8. Dennis will get extra #12 bags.
9. Terri will provide pictures of all sell plants. Gayle will send her a list of plants left over from Plant Fest.
10. Jay will make a spread sheet to keep track all sale plants and which one sells.

11. We need Banana Boxes for the sale. Ask your grocery for them and bring them to set up Friday afternoon.

The Board has accepted Dennis' suggestion to change our storage unit. He will store everything in his trailer the week before the Show and Sale and start a new contract on May 1, 2010 with Metro Storage which is near the church. Jay suggested creating a list of contents for each box and a master list of contents of the storage unit. Dennis, Jay, Greg and Kay will have access code to the unit.

Dwain told us that Sandy Soderberg, as Historian should be on the executive Board.

Linda Sample read a letter from Bob Linde apologizing for his failure to speak at our at 2-20-2010 meeting. We will try to arrange to have him speak at our September or October meeting in 2011.

Alan and Sally Doggett brought Daylily Clarion Call for a door prize. It is an orange sherbet Tet that Alan hybridized. Kay Smith won the daylily.

Mark showed how to groom a daylily scape to enter into the show. He used Linda's 'Ring of Wonder'. If you enter a seedling, cut the scape at the base.
We adjourned and went to lunch at the Corner Deli in Plant City.
